

A hand is shown at the top of the frame, pouring a golden syrup from a small metal cup onto a tall stack of pancakes. The pancakes are stacked on a dark wooden plate. The top of the stack is garnished with sliced bananas, almonds, and fresh mint leaves. The syrup is being poured down the center of the stack, creating a thick, golden stream. The background is a dark, textured surface, and a dark blue cloth is visible in the lower right corner. The overall lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of the food and the liquid.
